

Join a Volunteer Guided Tour of Asakusa!

Asakusa, one of Tokyo's most traditional and lively neighborhoods, is waiting for you to visit. Sensoji Temple, otherwise known as Asakusa Kannon Temple, typifies the area's glorious past. Browsing for souvenirs along Nakamise, a genuinely Japanese shopping mall, will be your Tokyo's unforgettable experience.

Tokyo Metropolitan Area SGG^(*) Club conducts FREE guided tours of Sensoji Temple and its neighborhood every Sunday. Tours, conducted in English, take about one hour, and start at 11:00a.m. and 2:00p.m. (*Systematized Goodwill Guide)

To participate in a tour, please come to the SGG Club counter on the first floor of Asakusa Cultural and Sightseeing Center, located across from the well-known Kaminarimon Gate of Sensoji Temple. Please arrive 10 minutes before each scheduled starting time. For directions and contact details, see below.

- * The number of participants may be limited on a first-come basis.
- * The tour may be cancelled without prior notice.
- * The tour is sponsored by Taito City Office, Tokyo.
